

Roundtable Discussion How to support efficient and innovative ICT Public- Private Partnerships (PPP)?

Session co-chairs

John Wood, Secretary General Association of Commonwealth Universities (UK)

Gillian Marcelle, Associate Professor, Wits Business School, South Africa

Session rapporteur

Sarah Hinz, Association of Commonwealth Universities (UK)

*Cape Town, South Africa - www.euroafrica-ict.org
4th Euro-Africa Cooperation Forum on ICT Research*

Setting the scene

Session objectives

- Understanding PPPs
- Reviewing illustrative examples
- Reflecting on lessons learnt: design and implementation

Setting the scene - Ctd

Key questions to be raised & debated during the session

- Q1 - Defining features of PPPs
- Q2 - Why are PPPs considered to be a superior vehicle for funding, innovation, deployment
- Q3 - Are particular segments of the ICT sector more suited to use of PPPs
- Q4 - Are PPPs better suited to particular stages of industry lifecycle?
- Q5 - What are the typical constraints to greater use of PPPs
- Q6 - Illustrative examples of PPPs that have succeeded and those that have failed to achieve intended outcomes of been stillborn

Q&A Session

